Attendance Incentives: The AIS Attendance Committee is going to pilot the following incentives second semester.

Weekly - The class with the highest percentage of attendance per grade level will receive a blue ribbon on their door. If a tie, every class that tied will receive a blue ribbon. These will be announced on Monday mornings each week during our AIS Student Announcements.

Monthly - The grade level with the highest percentage of attendance will receive a 30 minute recess covered by principals & counselor.

End-of-Year - The AIS classroom with the most blue ribbons will receive a pizza party.

Crawford County Contestants from AIS: Alayna Cunningham, Daniel Rodriguez, Landyn Nelson, Cole Chanthaseny and Abel Wassenaar(alternate)

Fifth graders enjoyed working with Primary School students on the Quilt Project for community members in need.

Congratulations to our Robotics Team on the good work at the AMS Tournament!

Thanks to our brave Staff Chili Cookoff judges and everyone for a great chili lunch! 1st Place- Hot Cajun Mess- Janice Vincent
2nd Place- Famous Texas Squirrel Chili- Michael Ritchie
3rd Place- Hunka Hunka Burnin' Love- Samantha Newell

Norah was glad to see this coach (and dad) at lunch.
